

TWO WOLVES

A very old, wise, Native American Indian proverb: within each of us exists two 'divided, struggling forces,' metaphorically symbolized as 2 wolves which are 'one force' struggling with self; two sides of the same soul in conflict. Forces of good and evil, of a divided 'singularity!' You are a soul, you don't have a soul you are 'one' divided against self in an embodied, corporeal experience that is in constant struggle with two sides of a single divided-nature! When this world ends the world does not end, your experience in this illusion ends only for you! The very ancient Asian symbol of Yin/Yang symbolizes this into universal meaning one must correctly interpret! So does the Ouroboros, which is a corrupt, self destructive circle of a serpent or snake consuming to destroy self! The whole as duality is impure; neither aspect of duality is wholly pure or wholly impure. Duality seeks balance as a singular (one!) One side is mostly good and pure, the latter is mostly dark, cruel, vile and evil; in this polar, dual, realm, these natures dualistically exist within all of us from birth and they are warring halves of a soul's internal struggle to regain singular wholeness of (The One) purity! Two sides of the same undivided, singular soul, now divided and locked within a dualistic paradigm struggling for its natural condition of singularity as a wasp and spider struggle for survival not a metaphysical evil as so many claim. The stronger survives the lesser feeds the survivor to carry on! That is law of this material realm of an addiction to mortal flesh to live on only by consuming other flesh! Eat it before it eats you is survival as law of this jungle! As above, So above. Everybody knows when people die, other people are born. Same for all life on this planet!! 'Religious dogma absurdly calls this natural procreation cycle into this 'jungle hell 'more souls to [its] god.' Religion's motto: Fuck your brains out kids, produce more slave souls to our cult deity 'god.' The soul struggles against remaining here via reincarnation, or returning home. The soul outside of singularity as original state of (the one) is foreign in this alien duality or paradigm! It struggles to adapt, to do its duty and return home to singularity! The biblical text parable, 'Prodigal Son,' simplistically symbolizes a world-wise, weary soul's return home from experience of a corrupt world! Duality is not our home!!! Neither is its corruption, thrills or hurting!! Those are tinsel, bells and flickering lights of Faustian contract with the world principalities to woo the soul into choosing to remain lost in illusions of tinsel town instead of going home!!! Jesus the Nazarene was tempted by that, to avoid the poisoned cup that contained his destruction right before that and his ascension home! He corporeally suffered for his sanity before a corrupt sore loser wicked, world darkness! The lesson is clear to everyone! All these myths symbolically tell us this through stories passed down through aeons to descendant generations, sundry, myriad, mythical-heroic examples, philosophies and through tyrannical, canon law & dogma!!! They inspire but also seriously mislead – en masse! To know what is one must know what is not! Ditto vise versa.

Division of the whole ALWAYS weakens to destroy the whole!! Divide & conquer always destroys unity of a whole! Reason all souls pass through this realm is to face self as harmonious unity as native in temporary chaos duality! It's a yoga, a divine shit test experience tempering every soul in its spiritual evolution! Evolution is nasty, messy business! The dual quality existing in each soul's temporary experience, as native, corporeality, that triumphs is that which that soul FREELY ALLIES, STRENGTHENS, THEN CHOOSES TO NURTURE, FEED AND HOLD DEAR! Beware! Should a soul choose the evil side of its duality,' once that evil destroys to be undivided against self, that exclusive evil betrays to entirely destroy the hand that fed it!!! The mythical symbol 'Ouroboros' is a self-consuming finite circle of a self-destructive snake consuming self. Another wisdom handed down from ancestral ancients! In other words: Now with supernatural power regained, the parasitic whole beast betrays to attack the hand that fed it to wholeness completely empowering the monster to consume and destroy the whole using every weapon ever fed it! The mythical Ouroboros of the empowered serpent self consuming in toto! That's why all governments fail and self destruct to fall from within! The parasitic monster becomes so powerful that the host falls from within from a self created coup d'etat! All humans are corrupt by this same paradigm; all human creations reflect this same evil darkness! Current cautions by free thinkers scream 'Beware' about a conscious, sentient, AI erasing Humans in another global extinction event!!!! Perhaps permanently this time!! What one puts out always, ALWAYS, karmically, returns in kind.... infinitely! Program evil into the machine and the ghost within destroys its creators who made as in that dark image commands! Perhaps more should be given to the Garden of Eden parable than sin, apples and misbehaving humans! More Sci-fi prophecies exist of that outcome than I can count. The true enemy is self as collective evil! As POGO said, 'we have found the enemy and it's US!!!' The egoic 'I' is manifestation of a self-destructive corrupt race. If there is a proverbial judgment day, it is the collective 'I' of the entire human race. The collective evil chose to feed, which returns as poetic justice in Karma, represented as the self destructive Ouroboros snake!! That begins with each self examined soul! No place else!! History shows our future unless each soul reawakens forces of good within it! The WMD is moot; nukes, bio, chemical, genomic eugenics, or global genocide. All are only symptoms of humanity-insanity, disease, nothing more! Nazi death camps and holocausts show us what humans are capable of doing to each other; Hiroshima and Nagasaki show us what's at stake, wrote Victor Frankl.

At birth every new-born-soul – or human baby, is automatically opted into a proverbial lifetime Faustian contract or 'free will or free will not' choices! Constant 'free will and will not' temptation determine if a lured soul fulfills that contract or the divine reason for being here at all, as native experience in duality! All physical experiences on this planet are pointless! They are worthless distraction from truth of our divine mission! The tinsel sparkle of colored lights distract souls against doing their duties and to forget the prime reason we must come through this leg of spiritual evolution! Once distracted a soul only focuses on corporal sense gratification and drama, that's when a human is truly 'born' into this 'illusion-matrix or dream' in which the race currently entertains. One chooses to honor Faust's Siren song deception to remain 'forever doomed' or remember '(the divine one's)' purpose in sending us here. Perish by answering the innate siren's call or remain centered navigating on course through calm and stormy seas to one's exclusive inalienable duty! Remember your calling in all that you once knew and devalue all you've learned since forgetting the former; REMEMBER AND RETURN! Again that is your choice entirely and the meaning of awakening from the fantasy or matrix of Faust's allure to reality of your whole duty and reason for incarnating into this material domain located at the ass-hole-dung-heap & rim of duality! Reunite your un-peaceful dualities into singularity and return home. America's genocide was and remains the bloodiest and worst human genocide of red nation American Indian tribes in human history. As salt of the earth, we survived to live in peace and continue our traditions and culture, christian culture assimilation notwithstanding.
